

CHESTNUT HILL EXPLORERS' CLUB

MONTHLY FUN-FILLED ACTIVITIES FOR KIDS!

Oct. 8, 2016 - Pumpkin Painting

Get in the spirit and paint a pumpkin while making new friends and learning more about Chestnut Hill!

Nov. 12, 2016 - Fire Station

Meet us at the Chestnut Hill Fire Station and learn why it was added to the Philadelphia Register of Historic Places.

*We will also be collecting canned food for those in need*

Dec. 10, 2016 - Gingerbread

Build one of Chestnut Hill's historic homes out of delicious gingerbread. The best construction wins a prize!

*We will also be collecting small toys for those in need*

Jan. 14, 2017 - Box Forts

Bring all of your leftover cardboard boxes from the holidays and build a fort with friends.

Feb. 11, 2017 - Flag Day

Design and make a flag for Chestnut Hill while learning about Betsy Ross. The best flag will be displayed at CHHS!

March 11, 2017 - Bird Feeders

Welcome spring by making birdfeeders and learning about the plants and animals that call Chestnut Hill home.

April 8, 2017 - Trail Hike

Meet us at the Rex Avenue trailhead and take a short hike to the indian statue to enjoy views of the Wissahickon. Bring your own water and snack.

May 13, 2017 - Ice Cream Celebration

Make your own ice cream and join us for a party on the lawn in front of CHHS.

Second Saturdays, 2:00-4:00 PM, at CHHS (8708 Germantown)

Materials and light snacks provided unless noted

FREE
FOR CHHS MEMBERS

If you are interested in attending, or in participating as a volunteer, please contact program coordinators Evan Pruitt and Lindsey Taconita at: chestnuthillexplorersclub@gmail.com.

If you are not yet a CHHS Member, become one now at CHHist.org/Membership.

CHESTNUT HILL
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
8708 Germantown Avenue | Philadelphia, PA 19118

great architecture is in our nature™